Our dear heavenly Father, as we come to you today, we ask a hedge of protection around our state leaders. We also ask protection over the men and women who serve our country and those who protect our streets and borders. They are willing to give their lives so that we can sleep peacefully.

I pray that Texas becomes a light that glorifies your name and shines into a world of darkness. May every law presented or passed be bathed in prayer so that they, too, will glorify your name.

God, please open our eyes to see what you see when you see us. May we follow the example of the love you have for all people. That love was shown in John 3:16: "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." God sent his son to serve and not be served.

God, not only bless these men and women, but cover their families who support them from home while they are here governing our state. We ask these things in your name. Amen.

On motion of Representative Minjarez, the names of all the members of the house were added to HCR 80 as signers thereof.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

The chair recognized Representative Uresti who introduced family members of Choco Gonzalez Meza, speaking as follows:

I got to know Choco Meza back in about 2003, and I spent many a day with her working on my campaign and other people's campaigns. She worked on every campaign from precinct chair to school board to city council. Working with our secretary of state, along with working with our president of the United States, Choco was known throughout the entire nation, not just in Bexar County.

Maria del Socorro "Choco" Meza, affectionately referred to as Choco, was an Eagle Pass native who fought for equal rights and was an inspiration to the Latino community. She was a leader in the fight to have Latinos' voices and opinions heard. Her impressive list of accomplishments can only be overshadowed by her personal qualities. From national research director to registering those in the Southwest to vote, she continued her fight for justice through the Bexar County Democratic Party and even worked on both Hillary Clinton campaigns in 2008 and in 2016. Meza was a former member of the Democratic National Committee and was a member of the Stonewall Democrats of San Antonio. She sought the endorsement of Stonewall Democrats of San Antonio when she ran for the Bexar County democratic chair in 2010 and in 2012.

Before passing, Meza worked tirelessly on Shirley Gonzales' two successful runs for City Council District 5 and served as the councilwoman's chief of staff. She also took time off to head the local Clinton campaign in San Antonio, which she put in the national spotlight. Choco used her popularity to continuously ensure equality was given to her people. She appeared in a PBS documentary exclaiming "your vote is your voice" and used this as a battle cry for equality. She was also mentioned in the Washington Post where she exclaimed that her family is an American success story.

Choco's husband of 44 years, Daniel Meza; son, Danny Meza; daughter, Ivalis Gonzalez; granddaughter, Emma Maria; brothers Victor Gonzalez, Robert Gonzalez, Alfonso Gonzalez; sister, Elva Benavidez; and 21 nieces and nephews and grandnieces and grandnephews have Choco forever in their hearts. I want to recognize the people we have here today, Elva Benavidez and of course, Choco's husband, Mr. Danny Meza.

And here's just a real quick story. Danny gave Choco to us for so many days in and out throughout the span of her career that for the first eight years that I knew Choco, I didn't even know she had a husband. I obviously saw Choco at every single event I went to, and then one day I met Daniel. He was introduced as her husband, and that's when me and Daniel became closer. So that's how much Daniel gave up of her to be able to help us as we moved forward in every election that we worked on. Daniel, thank you for sharing her with us. I'm going to allow my other colleagues to say something on behalf of Choco.

Representative Arévalo addressed the house, speaking as follows:

First, I'd like to say thank you to Representative Tomas Uresti for doing this house resolution. I met Choco Meza while I was attending Incarnate Word High School. I happened to have graduated high school with her daughter, Ivalis. At the time, I knew her as a political activist and someone that inspired people to not just get involved in their communities but get involved in the local political process. And I know for a fact there are many individuals today, especially those who have been touched by her life in San Antonio and Bexar County, that are here today because of her leadership and her example. So I want to thank the Meza family for setting that example and making it much easier for women like me to be able to stand behind a podium like this today.

Representative Minjarez addressed the house, speaking as follows:

Choco was a pillar of strength, and she was instrumental in ensuring that women in Bexar County ran for office. We miss you, Choco. We think of you every day, and we thank you for what you have done for each and every one of us.

Representative J. Rodriguez addressed the house, speaking as follows:

I just wanted to lend a few words about Choco and in particular Danny and the family. Choco was just someone that if you knew her, you wouldn't forget her. When she walked into a room, she had so much vibrancy about her, so much passion, not just for partisan causes but for people causes. And that's what I'll remember the most about Choco. To Danny and family, we send our prayers. Certainly her legacy lives on forever.

Representative Bernal addressed the house, speaking as follows:

First, Danny and Ms. Benavidez, thank you so much for sharing Choco with us. Members, if you look behind me, you'll see the entire Bexar County delegation, and if we could go back in time, you would have every member of this delegation, both republican and democrat, standing here, because that is how much this woman meant to us. It is a tremendous loss and an inspiration for us to try to fill that gap. But just know that the reason why we are all speaking today is because this woman, unlike any other, made not only an impression on our lives but was a member of the community that cannot be replaced.

Representative Cortez addressed the house, speaking as follows:

I, too, also just wanted to pay my respects and my thoughts and prayers to the Meza family. Choco played a huge role in my first election in 2012 here to the House of Representatives. She was part of my field team; she led my field team. And she and I always had a slogan that "if you're not walking, you're not winning." Choco reminded me of that every single day in our campaign headquarters. So Mr. Meza and to the family, Ivalis, thank you for being here today. We miss her tremendously.

Representative Gutierrez addressed the house, speaking as follows:

I think Representative Bernal said it best. I think she'd be real happy right now because she'd probably say to herself, my God, I never thought I'd have so many republicans paying attention to me today. But I got to tell you—you got one of these forces of nature in your community, and that's what she was. Choco Meza was a force of nature. She's alive in all these children up here, and she's alive in all of your constituents. So I certainly appreciate you giving her the respect she deserved today.

ADDRESS BY SENATOR LUCIO

The chair introduced Senator Lucio who addressed the house, speaking as follows:

I'm extremely honored to be here with you all on this wonderful floor that I got to step on 30 years ago this last January. It was such an honor for me to work with incredible men and women, 149 others who I respected so much and that I enjoyed reporting to work with on every day. By the grace of God, I have been given an opportunity to work with many, many more state representatives and senators over the years. I know Tom Craddick is still here. Senfronia Thompson, Harold Dutton, John Smithee—those are people that I introduced to my son, Representative Eddie Lucio III. Todd Hunter came in from Corpus shortly after. I know that I'm going to miss some that I have so much respect for over the years. Vice-Chairman Kacal is my brother in Christ. We are so close, we pray every day just about, with modern technology, texting each other and communicating. We pray for both chambers. We get together once a week. But today, I wanted to come here to thank all of you, because the greatest joy that I've had over the years was to be able to converse with both parties, members of the democratic party and the republican party, who have come over to the senate, who come straight to my desk and tell me, "it's a joy to work with your son." Those are the greatest words that any parent, especially me, could hear.

In 1970, I won my first election. I was 24 years old, and my dream came true because I reported to the courthouse in Cameron County to work alongside my father who was a chief deputy in the Cameron County Sheriff's Office. He worked there for 30 years. I was his eldest son of six, and then I had four sisters, but we all were so proud of the public service that my dad endeavored in every day of his life. A giver, he taught us how to share and do everything we could to be understanding and caring to one another and to those in our community.

I brought Eddie up here when he was 10 years old. I took him up and down the aisle and he, with his little crew cut and red tie I believe he was wearing with his sport coat—I still see him. And I introduced him to 149 of my brothers and sisters at that time. It was an incredible experience at that time to bring my son. And they called him governor at the time, but he's a state representative, and that is as good as being president of this country to me. I'm just very proud of him. I want to thank Speaker Straus, who I consider an incredible leader. You should have heard him this morning for those of you that missed it at the prayer breakfast. He was—exemplary is not good enough to use to describe his prayer this morning.

Today I want to give Chairman Lucio III a little token of my appreciation for being a wonderful son, a great public servant, and a young leader. We have so many wonderful young leaders here that I respect and admire that will be here long after we're gone. I want you all just to remember one thing. This is happening through the grace of God—that we have an opportunity to look at and address the issues that are important to each man, woman, and child that lives in this wonderful state of ours. For those that come also—that are hungry, that are abused, that are homeless, and as Speaker Straus said today, the poor—to our borders, and we lend a helping hand. I'm so proud of all of you here today. I want to present my son, so he can use and remember that we're in partnership, the house and the senate, a gavel: Chairman Eddie Lucio III, House Rules and Resolutions Committee, 85th Legislative Session. All I can say, Eddie, is that you're blessed to work with men and women who truly care for our great state. They come from every corner of this state, and I will pray daily that all of us continue to be blessed by our Lord Jesus Christ, by the God that put us here. Thank you very much and God bless you all.
